

MANAGEMENT & SUPERVISORY LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM

Provo, UT
July 8 - 12, 2024

The management institute is for anyone in a leadership position. This no-nonsense, five-day course will teach you how to put effective management and supervisory skills to work for you and your organization. You'll learn to make better leadership decisions, communicate more effectively, avoid costly mistakes and get the results you want. With participants coming from all over the country, this is a terrific opportunity to share knowledge of the water industry. Plan on attending yourself or sending other managers and supervisors (or prospective managers and supervisors) who would benefit from this superior skills program.

The five-day course includes: (Monday-Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Friday from 8:00 am to 1 p.m.)

SECTION 1: Leadership. Leadership is the most studied and least understood subject in modern management theory. Drawing from current sources of data and from ancient perspectives this section will explore actionable approaches to developing capacity as a leader.

SECTION 2: Teams. Leaders accomplish little by themselves. Leadership implies followership, and the best followers are those who are mutually accountable, committed and contributors to the organizations mission...in other words a team. Learn the difference between a working group and a team. Develop the framework and skills to develop teams.

SECTION 3: Conflict. Any functional relationship requires the capacity to harness conflict. Learn the skillsets and practices to move work relationships to higher levels of collaboration and synergy. Rational conflict management while maintaining emotional intelligence is key to leadership success.

SECTION 4: Decisions. Leaders are commonly judged by their capacity to make successful decisions. Decisions are the culmination of all leadership skills including conflict and team skills. Learn decision processes that increase the quality of decisions and engage stakeholders in committed follow through.

SECTION 5: Developing New Managers. Perhaps the most important role of a leader is to develop other leaders. Topics explored will include succession, mentoring, coaching as well as delegation, feedback and performance management.
